

DELMAR L. OLSON (OLIE)

May 18, 1929 - Dec 3, 2020

Delmar Olson, 91, of Gig Harbor passed away on December 3rd, 2020 of natural causes at St. Anthony Hospital in Gig Harbor.

Del {Olie) was born to Elsie and Anton Olson, May 18, 1929, in Chamberlain, South Dakota. Following the death of his father in 1934 the family moved to Auburn/Tacoma Washington. Del graduated from Stadium High School, class of 1947, attended the University {College) of Puget Sound and the University of Washington. In 1950 he married Margaret Hood {Stadium class of 1948) and went to work in the Survey Division, City of Tacoma. After 34 years, Del retired from the City of Tacoma, as Chief Surveyor, and established his own survey practice retiring in 1984{?). He was a longtime member of First Christian Church, Tacoma.

golfing and family activities.

He spent many hours in his wood working shop/garage. He is survived by Maggie, his wife of 70 years, two sons, Ben {Nancy), Carl (Laurie) of Gig Harbor, 5 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. Always loved and will be remembered as a loving husband, father, father-in-law, Grandpa Del, and great Grandpa Olie.

Maggie and Del enjoyed spending winter RV-ing to Arizona and in the summer in the Northwest with an RV club. He enjoyed boating, flying (single engine private plane), fishing,

